

SITE CONTENT USE POLICY

1. Materials, published at <https://www.yuzhnoye.com> site (hereafter – «Site»), are for the nonprofit use. All materials, published on the site, including text materials, photographs, images, audio- and video clips (hereafter – «Materials» or «Content»), but not limited to them, are copyright protected, and right of Materials ownership or right of use belong to Yuzhnoye State Design Office (hereafter – «Company»).

2. Site content is copyright protected according to the copyright law of Ukraine and international normative legal acts in the field of intellectual property.

3. Company trademarks have state registration. Use of their images and stylized text parts are also copyright protected.

4. Site users may download or copy Site contents, other components and elements, printed on the Site, only for personal use on conditions of compliance with the copyright (it is prohibited to change, use as slander, offence, obnoxious purposes etc.). It is strictly prohibited to copy or save any contents for purposes other than personal without preliminary written agreement of the Company.

5. Nonprofit use of Site Content in small amount (up to one thousand characters of text material, one image, one audio- or videoclip) is permitted on the condition of compulsory reference to the original source and specifying the Company as the owner of the used Content (when using in network – hyperlinking to the relevant Internet-page of the Company with the unique network address). Big amount of Content can be used only on the condition of obtaining written permission from the Company.

6. Company at its one's own discretion will provide the written permission to use its Content to the individual, who has posted written application in the Site's section Contacts <https://www.yuzhnoye.com/ua/company/contacts>. Application must include the applicant contacts.